

舉報信

尊敬的委員會：

我舉報貴校擬錄取研究生楊景媛存在嚴重的誣陷、網絡暴力及道德失範行為，其行為已對他人造成嚴重傷害，並可能損害貴校聲譽。具體事實如下：

司法認定的誣告行為：楊景媛（生於甘肅蘭州，此前在武漢大學就讀）曾在中國內地誣告一名男生（肖 XX）性騷擾，並公開其隱私，導致肖 XX 遭受大規模網暴、學業中斷、罹患抑鬱症，其祖父因此事件去世。幾天前，該誣告已被中國法院終審判決不成立（判決書在網上可以搜到）。

敗訴後持續挑釁：楊景媛在敗訴後仍於社交平台炫耀其學術成就（如“保研成功”“已通過法考”），並揚言向肖 XX 申請的境外院校投遞“證據材料”，意圖繼續迫害。（其挑釁截圖如下）

對貴校的潛在風險：楊景媛的行為嚴重違反法律道德，甚至可能會給貴校帶來不利輿論影響

訴求：

撤銷 楊景媛 的博士 / 研究生錄取資格；

調查其道德品行，防止其利用學術身份繼續施害。

Dear Admissions Committee,

I submit this report regarding the prospective doctoral/master's candidate Yang Jingyuan, whose admission to your institution I believe should be reconsidered in light of serious misconduct—specifically, malicious defamation, online harassment, and ethical violations—that has caused grave harm to others and may imperil the reputation of your university.

Judicially Established False Accusation.

Ms. Yang Jingyuan, born in Lanzhou, Gansu, and formerly an undergraduate at Wuhan University, falsely accused a male student (Mr. Xiao XX) of sexual harassment on the Chinese mainland. She further disseminated his private information online, triggering widespread cyber-bullying that forced Mr. Xiao to suspend his studies, suffer severe depression, and ultimately witness the death of his grandfather from the stress. A final court judgment, publicly available online, has definitively ruled Ms. Yang's accusation unfounded.

Post-Judgment Provocation.

Following her legal defeat, Ms. Yang has continued to boast on social media about her academic achievements—“successful graduate-school exemption” and “passing the National Bar Examination”—while threatening to forward “evidence” to the overseas institutions Mr. Xiao has applied to, thereby perpetuating harassment.

Potential Risk to Your Institution.

Ms. Yang's conduct flagrantly violates legal and ethical standards and could expose your university to reputational harm and adverse public scrutiny.

Requests:

Revoke Ms. Yang Jingyuan's offer of admission to your doctoral/master's program.

Conduct a thorough investigation of her ethical record to prevent further harm and ensure that academic integrity is upheld.
